2026 RIDER GUIDE

WELCOME MESSAGE AMY'S FOUNDATION

On behalf of the Amy's Foundation Board and team, thank you for riding with us at Amy's Great Ocean Road Gran Fondo.

You are here because of Amy Gillett, who was killed by a driver while training with the Australian women's road team in Germany in 2005. Everything the Foundation has done since comes back to one idea, that every rider gets home.

This weekend gives you something most riders never get. Closed roads on one of the best stretches of coast in the country, around 4,000 riders alongside you, and no reason to think about what is coming up behind. It's a rare and glorious freedom, soak it up and enjoy.

For the rest of the year we are sharing the roads with other users. The law asks a driver to leave you a metre when they pass at 60km/h or under, and a metre and a half when they are travelling faster than that. Getting that written into law is only half the job, the critical work we are doing is to ensure that police enforce the laws consistently across the country, and getting drivers to change the way they behave and use our roads.

We also work on how roads are designed and built, because whether a rider gets home is often decided long before a driver comes up behind them. We fund and use research so that what we put in front of government is evidence rather than opinion, including work on what actually makes a rider recognisable to a driver at night, which is not what most people assume. We run education for both drivers and riders, and we tell the stories of the people who have been hit and the impact on the family, friends and community when that happens. We do that because it's important to ensure that lives do not become faceless, nameless data points.

At Amy's Foundation we believe strongly in the power of single conversations, and the cumulative effect of them to create change. If the thousands of you riding on Sunday have even a few conversations this year, it creates the momentum we need. Ask the drivers you know whether they can picture a metre from the driver's seat, because most cannot and most think they are already leaving one. It is roughly the width of a car door opened out. Remind them they are allowed to cross the centre line to pass you when it is safe to do so, tell them that waiting for that gap costs seconds rather than minutes, and ask them to check the mirror before they turn left across a bike lane. Then ask them to open their door with the far hand, so their shoulder turns and they see what is coming.

Over the weekend, pop in and see us at the Amy's Foundation tent in the event village in Lorne.

Ride safely, look after the riders around you, and enjoy the day.

WELCOME MESSAGE SURF COAST SHIRE MAYOR

A warm welcome to the Surf Coast for Amy's Great Ocean Road Gran Fondo: a favourite event with a proud legacy and a lasting local impact.

It will be wonderful to see Lorne buzzing with cyclists, spectators, officials and volunteers.

There are few experiences quite like riding a fully closed Great Ocean Road, surrounded by spectacular coastline, charming hinterland and the energy of thousands of people coming together for a memorable challenge.

Amy's Great Ocean Road Gran Fondo has long been one of the Surf Coast's most respected events. It provides an important boost to Lorne and surrounding communities during the quieter visitor season, while offering an opportunity for people to connect and be active in a stunning location.

The Surf Coast recently achieved Eco Destination accreditation: the second destination in Victoria to do so. We'd love to welcome you back to experience more of the Surf Coast's incredible natural environment.

Importantly, this event continues to champion safer roads for everyone.

We applaud Amy's Foundation's commitment to make cycling safer in Australia.

We're playing our part, through our Safer Cycling Strategy which aims to improve the safety and quality of the cycling experience; reduce fatal and serious injury cyclist crashes by 30% by 2030; and increase participation in cycling.

A great example is a review of pedestrian and active transport connections across the Lorne township, to make it easier and safer for people to ride, walk and move around. It's encouraging to see this work sit alongside an event that so clearly celebrates the benefits of cycling and safe movement.

Wishing every rider an enjoyable Amy's Great Ocean Road Gran Fondo!

24 AUG - 5 SEPT 2027

All riders who complete the 122km Gran Fondo will be ranked according to their Age Group. The common start time (gun time) for each age group is set when the first rider of that age group crosses the timing start during the Age Group start waves. For example, a rider in the Recreational Category will be included in the rankings for their age group; however, their start time for ranking purposes will be the same as all riders in the Age Group Race. Therefore, the Age Group Race is recommended for anyone seeking to qualify for the 2027 World Championships. Recreational Category riders will also be provided an individual Net time from when they cross the timing start (unranked).

For further details, please refer to the UCI Gran Fondo World Series Regulations Page

Please note, this excludes anyone whose bike does not meet UCI regulations (e-bikes, tandem, recumbent bikes and time trial bikes are forbidden). Those who qualify on Sunday 13th of September will receive an SMS to confirm this, and may then collect a UCI Qualifier's medal in the Event Village.

2026 RIDER GUIDE

RIDING BEFORE & AFTER EVENT

Amy's Gran Fondo is the safest event on the Australian cycling calendar and we make no apologies for the procedures that are in place to enable us to maintain our safety record.

We also strongly encourage utilising the same mindset during your pre-event training and any other times you are out sharing the roads with fellow road-users.

On our website, you'll find some key safety tips for your pre-event training, whether riding locally or on the coast. Don't forget to do your compulsory pre-event safety briefing.

8 STEPS TO SAFER RIDING

1. Always follow the road rules
2. Ensure you can be seen by all road users - have lights on your bike & wear bright coloured clothing
3. Maintain your bike
4. Indicate your intentions to other road-users
5. Be ready to ride and fuel yourself to prevent fatigue
6. Always expect the unexpected - be alert & aware of your surroundings
7. Always wear your helmet - it's Australian law!
8. Ensure you carry identification every time you ride.

RESPECT THE LOCAL ROAD ENVIRONMENT

Be conscious of the road conditions and local environment where you are cycling. In rural and regional locations, you are likely to encounter a range of road conditions, including poor road surfaces, unsealed shoulders, gravel, broken bitumen, potholes, poorly maintained markings and narrow, windy roads with poor sight lines. It is unlikely that there will be dedicated cycling facilities such as marked bike lanes, and speed zones are likely to be higher.

It's also important to be aware of local weather conditions – for example, in the Great Ocean Road and Otway Region where Amy's is held, fog, mist, low-lying cloud and rain frequently occur, particularly in the cooler months. Don't forget too that you may encounter wildlife, such as kangaroos, wallabies and wombats. Remember that many tourists come to the Great Ocean Road and Otway Region, and are unlikely to be familiar with the environment – they may be distracted by maps, GPS systems and the natural beauty around them.

In city and metropolitan locations, the conditions can vary greatly. Be alert, scan the road ahead and be aware of other vehicles – in particular watch for car doors, and be aware of blind spots. Be mindful of the impact that these local conditions can have on you and other road users – be aware and take extra care. Read the road ahead, and ride to the local conditions.
